CANINE COMMUNICATION 101

an educational fund raiser
generously hosted by DISPLAYWORKS

Body language is the number one communication tool used by dogs to express what they're thinking and feeling, but it's often subtle and complex. This fun, information-packed seminar, led by a training and behavior specialist, features over 100 still photos and video clips of dogs "speaking dog" in a wide range of situations. An outstanding learning opportunity for anyone who works with dogs and everyone who loves them!
